William G. Weaver, Burgess Of Gettysburg, Is Appointed Chief Assessor For Adams County

Burgess William G. Weaver has been named chief assessor of Adams county, the county commissioners announced today.

He will begin his new full-time duties April 1, with offices in the arbitration room in the court house. Colonel Weaver, who is also head of the county civil defense organization, and president of the Gettysburg fire company, said that he will continue as burgess, with office hours in the evening instead of during the day as at present. If the pressure of work proves too great, however, he will resign the burgess' job. Under the law it is believed that the same man may hold both positions.

Salary of the new chief assessor will be set at a meeting of the salary board of the county in the near future, the commissioners said.

Fills New Position
Burgess Weaver, as chief assessor, will be filling a new position in the county. Under new laws passed at the last legislature the chief assessor will set up an office where maps and information on all property in the county will be kept. He will determine the assessment on all properties. Assessors elected in the various boroughs and townships will provide information concerning properties to the chief assessor.

That portion of the program will probably not go into effect until 1953, the commissioners said in their discussion of the new assessment set up.

Under state law the counties have five years in which to make the complete change-over from the present assessment by each of the assessors in his own district to the planned county-wide assessment principle.

To Fix Assessment
It was believed that much of the chief assessor's time during the forthcoming year will be devoted to setting up the maps of the county showing each property and its assessment and setting up a card system listing each property and its value. Under the plan, once it is set up, the entire county can be reassessed to bring into line the assessments of all properties according to a percentage of actual value established by the commissioners.

At present the commissioners are using a figure, 23½ per cent of actual value, which is the county-wide average for assessments. Whether that figure will be changed will be decided later.

Mr. Weaver will attend a state-wide assessment school to be held at the University of Pennsylvania April 3 and 4, the commissioners said. At that meeting it is expected that state officials will outline much of the proposed work of the new office.

Clerk Served Part Time
Prior to this year the chief clerk of the county commissioners also served as chief assessor, but his duties were part-time and he had no part in making actual assessments.

County assessors will receive their 1952 assessment books on April 15.

The bid of J. H. Miller, Hanover R. 4, of $2,492 to paint the 30 rooms in the women's building at the county home was accepted by the county commissioners Wednesday afternoon. Miller, who painted the interior of the court house several years ago, was $8 lower than Kerrigan's Paint shop, which bid $2,500.

The commissioners Wednesday received rough plans for the proposed renovation of the asylum building at the county home into an infirmary. Architect Alfred Hammie is scheduled to meet with the commissioners April 3 at the county home to go over the plans with them.

CYCLIST INJURED

Richard J. Hahn, 22, a member of Hanover police force, received cuts about the face Wednesday morning when he was thrown from his motorcycle which he was riding along the Lincoln highway, near New Oxford. Hahn, who was off duty at the time, was treated by Dr. Wilbur Miller, New Oxford.

Extensive alterations are under way at the former residence of Dr. George D. Stahley, Carlisle street, acquired by Gettysburg college under the will of the late owner following the death of his wife, who was given life use of the property.

The home will become the residence of the new college president, Dr. Walter C. Langsam. A porch is being enclosed and an addition erected. According to a building permit issued to the college by Burgess William G. Weaver, the cost of the improvements and alterations is estimated at $12,500.

Another building permit has been issued for alterations to the home of the late Dr. R. S. Saby on Carlisle street, sold by Mrs. Saby to Donald T. Peters. The latter was issued a permit for a brick addition and a concrete block garage, estimated to cost $2,000.

WILL ORGANIZE AUTHORITY TO TAKE OVER FAIR GROUNDS, DEBT

Plans for further improvement of the South Mountain fairgrounds and amortization of the debt over a long period of years were revealed today with the announcement that the board of road supervisors of Menallen township is seeking to organize a municipal authority to take over the fairgrounds.

Establishment of the Menallen Township Authority would permit the sale of bonds, to local residents preferably, sufficient to cover current indebtedness of the South Mountain Community and Fair association and provide funds for improvement of parking facilities and driveways and general improvement of the entire fairgrounds.

Members Of Authority
The grounds would become the property of the Menallen Township Authority which would lease the fairgrounds to the South Mountain Fair association at an annual rental which would cover the cost of amortizing the bonds over a number of years. The fair association would have responsibility for maintenance of the grounds.

Members of the authority, as appointed by the board, will be: Charles L. Taylor, Biglerville R. 1, named for a five-year term; Robert C. Lott, Aspers R. 1, four years; J. Blaine Hartman, Biglerville R. 1, three years; Paul P. Osborn, Aspers R. 1, two years, and E. J. Staub, Biglerville R. 1, one year. All terms will begin as of January 1, 1952.

Legal notices have been published by the township board through its president, George L. Culp, and Secretary Cameron Garretson, stating the purpose of the township board to set up the authority. The articles of incorporation of the authority will now go to the secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It was not known how soon approval would be given by the state permitting the five members of the authority to organize and begin the sale of bonds.

G. A. CARBAUGH IS HONORED AT CASHTOWN FETE

George A. Carbaugh, who was described by Judge W. C. Sheely as "having more friends than anyone in western Adams county," Wednesday night, was presented by the Cashtown Community fire department, with a plaque for his 29 years of service to the community.

During all his 29 years as a Cashtown fireman Carbaugh served as an officer and for 20 years was treasurer of the organization.

Judge Sheely, principal speaker at a dinner in the Cashtown fire house given in honor of Mr. Carbaugh by the Cashtown firemen and the auxiliary, said:

"It is a personal pleasure to help show honor to George Carbaugh. I've known him many years, possibly longer than many of the more than 100 members of the Cashtown fire department gathered here tonight. Actually we are not so much honoring him for his long service to the fire department as we are honoring him for being himself."

Cites Many Good Things

"As we pass through our daily lives we read of murders and robberies; we hear speakers tell us what is wrong with our communities and our nations and we forget the many things for which we can be thankful. Sometimes we forget that the reason the newspapers tell us of the bad things of life is the fact that the bad things are unusual. If we tried to write about all the good things we would fill all the newspapers and still have many things yet to tell."

"We have here tonight an example of the good things. The fact that there is a Cashtown Community Fire Department with 300 men and four women as members is one of the good things about the country. The fact that we have here a man who has given 29 years of service to his community through the fire company is another of the good things about the country."

BULLETINS

Washington, March 27 (AP)—Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson dropped plans today for a top level parley of government officials concerned with the threat of a steel strike April 8. Washington, March 27 (AP)—Senator Styles Bridges (R.-N. H.) testified today he took an interest in a seven million dollar tax case against a Baltimore liquor dealer because he wanted to encourage "quick and proper action" by the government.

PUMPHREY'S FOOD MARKET OPENS FRIDAY

Fairfield's newest food store will hold its formal opening Friday and Saturday, according to an advertisement appearing in The Gettysburg Times today.

Just a little more than a year ago Stanley P. Pumphrey, who had formerly operated a service station on Route 301 in Southern Maryland, opened his new Esso Servicenter at the intersection of the Fairfield-Ortanna and Fairfield-Gettysburg roads, on the site of the old Hamilton township voting house.

The service station was opened on February 23, 1951. So successful has it proved that Mr. Pumphrey decided to expand into the food business.

A large meat department with walk-in refrigerator is located toward the rear. Other departments include dairy products, fresh fruits and vegetables, seafoods of all kinds, soft drinks and candy and a large number of household helps and other items to be found in a store of this type.

Report Some Clarification In Plan To Exchange Prisoners Of War; U.N. Seeks A Compromise

Seoul, March 27 (AP)—Stormy weather over North Korea grounded Allied warplanes early today. On the 155-mile battle front only light, squad-size Communist thrusts were reported.

Weather reconnaissance planes maintained a patrol. A break in the heavy clouds would permit resumption of Allied aerial strikes against the battered Communist rail system.

Far East Air Forces planes mounted 926 sorties Wednesday. During the night Japan-based B-29 super-forts dropped 60,000 pounds of air-bursting bombs on the front. Light bombers in night attacks knocked out 25 Communist supply vehicles.

U.N. naval aircraft and surface craft pounded both Korean coasts Wednesday. Pilots from the U.S. carriers Philippine Sea and Valley Forge reported they blasted 256 new gaps in Red rail lines.

Carrier-based marine pilots knocked out a Communist village used as a command post for enemy troops.

The cruisers Manchester and Rochester with escorting destroyers smashed enemy positions along the eastern coast.

Strike Continues At Camp Ritchie

More than 100 workers at Camp Ritchie continued on strike this afternoon. The workers walked out on the $2,000,000 housing rehabilitation program there on Wednesday morning and have since been picketing the work.

The Wage Stabilization Board is said to be studying the strike. However, no announcement has been made as to what increase in wages the workers seek, or what other demands they may have. At present laborers are being paid $1.49 an hour. Fort Ritchie is designed to be a supplemental installation for the "underground pentagon" at Fountainebleau. No work is going on in the Raven Rock (Beard Lot) tunnel at the present time.

Old Deeds Don't Come Under New State Tax
Old deeds will be tax free as far as the state is concerned, according to word received today by the county register and recorder.

Register and Recorder Harry D. Ridinger said he had been notified that provisions of the deed tax law have been changed removing the state tax on deeds executed prior to February 1, 1952.

Previous rules set down by the state provided that all deeds recorded after February 1, 1952 should pay the new state tax, whether the deeds were actually new transfers of property, or old ones in a chain of title.

Under the new ruling the deed tax will apply only to current transfers of property and no tax will be paid on old deeds showing a chain of title to the new transaction.

Munsan, Korea, March 27 (AP)—

Korean truce negotiators today swapped detailed explanations of how they want to exchange prisoners of war as the U.N. command openly sought a compromise.

An official Allied spokesman said "neither optimism nor pessimism is justified" at this point in the secret sessions.

In a nearby tent Communist tempers flared in a dispute over whether the U.N. command represents the Korean people.

Col. Don O. Darrow inadvertently triggered the outburst while discussing a Korean translation of United Nations.

Darrow told the Communists they had no right to haggle over the points since "you seem to forget that I represent the Korean people also — those allied with the United Nations."

Argue Representation
"The Americans cannot represent the Korean people," North Korean Col. Chang Chun San retorted angrily.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nickols, official U.N. spokesman, said the translation dispute has been regarded as a mere technicality, but it "is taking on some significance."

The Communists want the U.N. command to be known in Korea as "Allied forces." The U.N. prefers "international Allied forces." One of these is about as close as you can come in Korean to United Nations.

Today's argument was in a session on supervising the truce. Nickols said both Allied and Communist staff officers working on prisoner exchange made "extensive statements which are apparently well-considered views."

"Some Clarification"
He declined to comment "on what the views are and the extent of their divergence, if any."

Nickols said the three secret sessions on prisoner exchange have "produced some clarification." He did not elaborate.

The prisoner-exchange negotiators went into executive session Tuesday so they could exchange opinions freely.

Nickols said it would "not be proper" to say progress has been made during the past three days unless clarification of views could be described as progress.

He added, however, that "the talks are being held with more candor in the last three days."

Hickman said each side is exploring the other's ideas in "free discussions of the problem — discussions without rancor."

G. A. CARBAUGH

we make a choice of what is valuable. We place values on what things are worth to us. And the most important values we set are those goals we have for our life. The man who chooses simply to amass wealth finds that he has made a choice of something that has little real worth. The man who values only himself finds that what he chose has little value. But the man whose choice is the one made by George Carbaugh, to live among one's neighbors as a friend, and to help build up his community, that man finds that he has chosen the true values and finds lasting satisfaction.

A. C. Keefer, McKnightstown, a member of the fire company since its reorganization, told of the development of the company and the services of Mr. Carbaugh to the company. When the fire department reorganized November 21, 1923, Keefer said, the officers included: president, R. D. Bream; secretary, G. A. Carbaugh; treasurer, G. W. Schwartz; fire chief, A. L. Carbaugh; first assistant chief, John Geyer; second assistant chief, Daniel Mickley; chaplain, Nevin Shultz; fire marshal, Lloyd Hartman.

Bruce Wetzel, president of the fire department, presented the plaque to Mr. Carbaugh on behalf of the firemen. Wetzel also presided at the meeting and, with Secretary Clarence Deardoff, led group singing. The meal was served by the auxiliary of the fire company.

The committee in charge of the program included William Dentler, Melvin Kane and Harry Small.

MEAT CUTTERS STRIKE LOOMS

Philadelphia, March 27 (AP)—A union spokesman says negotiations between the AFL Meat Cutters Union and six chain store companies have broken down and a strike seems likely.

Leon Schachter, president of the union, made the statement after talks with company representatives over union demands for a 40-hour work week and a pay increase.

He said the company representatives refused both demands. The union, numbering 4,500, voted to strike Saturday unless the company met the demands.

The Butchers are employed in the Philadelphia-South Jersey-Deleware area by the American Stores Co., the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., Baltimore Markets, Food Fair, Budget Markets, and Penn Beef Co. Schachter said the company representatives asked during the meeting for an extension until April 12 of the negotiation period. He added that this request was refused.

Meanwhile, Fred W. Johnson, vice president of the American Stores Co., appealed to the AFL Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butchers of North America, parent organization of the Philadelphia Union, for aid in heading off the strike.

KANSAS LACES ST. JOHN'S FOR NCAA HONORS

By JIM HUTCHESON
Seattle, March 27 (AP)—Kansas rules the world of collegiate basketball today and big Clyde Lovellette wears the crown.

The Jayhawks won the NCAA title in convincing fashion last night by downing St. John's of Brooklyn 80-68.

Lovellette, keeping up a terrific scoring pace with the championship chips down, led the way with 33 points. His record-breaking performance brought him the designation as most valuable player of the tourney.

The Kansas conquest came after Illinois won third ranking by downing Santa Clara 67-64.

Kansas, which was rated eighth by the nation's sports writers in the 1952 Associated Press poll, never gave the Redmen of St. John's a chance. Lovellette put the Kansas in front with an opening free throw and they stayed there all the way.

The Jayhawks set up an iron defense that kept the Redmen in check so they never were able to keep a sustained offensive clicking until the final period. It was the only period in which the losers held a scoring edge.

Meanwhile, Lovellette kept firing his deadly pushups and hook shots to run up a dozen field goals along with nine free throws.

Guard Bill Lienhard and Forward Bob Kenny added a dozen points each and Guard Gene Kelley was a sparkplug on the floor.

Lovellette Sets Marks
The 6 foot 9 Lovellette ran his four-game NCAA playoff scoring total to 141 points. He had broken the old record of 83 points in the first three games. It had been set by Don Sunderlage of Illinois last year.

He also set a new free throw record of 35 for the four games. The old record of 27 also was held by Sunderlage.

Another record that fell before the deadeye Kansans was the high score for an NCAA championship final. The 80 points topped the 71 tallied by City College of New York in beating Bradley for the title in 1950.

The tight Kansas defense kept the St. John's star center, Bob Zawoluk, fairly well in check as Lovellette hung over him like a leaning tower under the basket. Zawoluk got nine points in sparking a fourth quarter St. John's drive, bringing his game total to 20. He fouled out three-and-a-half minutes before the end.

Jayhawks Hike Lead
Kansas made it look like an impending runaway at the start, in running up a 7-1 margin. The Redmen rallied to pull up within a point at 10-9. Then Kansas started clicking to run up an 18-13 first quarter lead and a 41-27 halftime score.

Kansas hit a decisive second period hot streak for 12 points while St. John's could get only a single field goal.

Illinois downed Santa Clara on the strength of big Jim Kerr's 26-point performance. After the score was tied at 57-57 and 58-58, Illinois pulled ahead to 64-59 and held on to finish three points in front.

Littlestown Club Elects Officers

Lewis H. Fox was reelected president of the Littlestown Baseball association at a meeting of approximately 20 directors and players of the association Monday evening in the local VFW post home, West King street. Others re-elected to office were James R. Reindollar, secretary-treasurer, and Marvin F. Breighner, team manager.

It was announced that anyone interested in conducting the concessions stand on Memorial field at the games this coming season may do so on a flat salary, bonus or commission basis. Interesting persons should contact one of the following: Lewis H. Fox, J. Arthur Boyd, Charles W. Weikert or Richard A. Maitland. A discussion was held concerning insurance on the team players. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the business.

The next meeting of the association will be held Tuesday evening, April 15, at the VFW home.

PHILLIE HOPES SKYROCKETING WITH SIMMONS

Clearwater, Fla., March 27 (AP)—Southpaw pitching ace Curt Simmons is coming home from the Army—and with that announcement the chances of a second National league pennant in 37 years for the Philadelphia Phillies were skyrocketing today.

Manager Eddie Sawyer and owner Bob Carpenter said they were notified the slim, dark-haired southpaw would be sent to a port of embarkation in Europe about April 1 and would trade his rifle for a baseball glove shortly after reaching this country.

Sawyer immediately began speculating on the off chance that Simmons might be ready to start the Phillies' season opener against the Boston Braves at Philadelphia's Shibe Park April 18.

Starts Pennant Talk
"Once he's out of the Army," said Sawyer, "it will be only a short time before Simmons is ready to pitch. His youth, the fact that he pitched considerable ball last year and always has kept himself in the best of shape should enable him to pitch 10 days after his discharge."

Word that Simmons was on his way back to the team gave the Phillies new life and started training camp talk of the club's pennant chances.

Curt's value to the club was amply shown at the end of the 1950 season. The Phillies were sailing along toward the pennant, leading the Brooklyn Dodgers by seven and a half games in early September.

Makes Pitching Staff Tops
Then the roof fell in. Simmons was called to active duty with Pennsylvania's 28th National Guard division. "When he went into service," said Sawyer, "we lost our drive, our confidence and our punch. We changed from a confident club to a frantic one."

After Curt donned an Army uniform, the Phillies went into a tailspin. They finally squeezed into the pennant on the last day of the season. And last season—without Simmons.

ATHLETICS MAY BE DOOMED TO POOR SEASON

By JOE REICHLER
West Palm Beach, Fla., March 27 (AP)—The aging Philadelphia Athletics, who managed to finish as high as fourth only once in the last 18 years, appear doomed to retain their second division franchise this year.

Of course, should the A's pick up where they left off last September, they not only would be assured of a first division berth, but, in all likelihood, would be challenging the contenders for the American league flag.

Buried in the basement, the Athletics went on a tear early in August and went through their last 18 series without losing one. Never did they lose more than two games in a row during that stretch that boosted them up into sixth place.

Weak, Slow And Meager
"We won during the last two months because our hitting and our pitching synchronized," said Manager Jimmy Dykes.

The majority of the experts look for the A's to resemble their early, rather than their late, 1951 form. The consensus is that Dykes worked a young miracle last year. There's is an aging club. First baseman Ferris Pain alone among the infielders has not passed 30. He will reach that age in two days. Shortstop, Eddie Joost is 35, second baseman Pete Suder is 34 and third baseman Billy Hitchcock is 33.

The catching is weak, the outfield is slow, the bench is threadbare and the rookie crop is meager.

Unbalanced Pitching
Philadelphia's main asset is its pitching. However, it is unbalanced. Four of their proven starters are left-handed. They are pint-sized Bobby Shantz (18-14), Alex Kellner (11-14), Morris Martin (11-4) and Sam Zoldak (6-10). Bob Hooper (12-10) was the only winning right-hander last year. Dick Fowler (5-11), burly-shouldered veteran, and Joe Coleman (1-6), of little use since he developed shoulder adhesions in 1949, have been working slowly and smoothly this spring but still need more of a test.

If advanced age, slowness of foot and below par catching could be overlooked, the A's would field a mighty imposing first line team. Their high cards are Pain who won the batting title with a .344 mark; Gus Zernial, the league's home run king (33) and runs batted in (129) king; Joost, the key man of the defense that amassed over 200 double plays for the third year in a row, and Elmer Valo, a fine defensive outfielder and a .302 hitter. Joost also performed well at the plate, driving in 78 runs and hitting 19 home runs.

Valo, Zernial and Allie Clark are set as the regular outfield trio. Valo is being switched from right to center field, where he may find fewer fences to hinder him.

To sum it up, Dykes may have a hard-throwing pitching staff, a couple of batting leaders and a solid one—they slipped to fifth.

The return of the young southpaw—Simmons will be 23 in May—will give the Phillies one of the strongest hurling staffs in the National league.

Sports Roundup

By GAYLE TALBOT

Phoenix, Ariz., March 27 (AP)—Signs of spring in the great southwest: The Chicago Cubs have been slaughtering everything in sight and the pitching monsters of the Cleveland Indians haven't been able to win for losing. As usual, the exhibitions do not count in the final standings.

Leo Durocher of the Giants says he doesn't know what's eating his old pal Charlie Dresen of the Dodgers.

"I keep reading where he says we've been laughing at his club all winter. Hell, I haven't even mentioned the Dodgers all spring until right now. I know better than anyone does how lucky we were when Thomson hit that homer."

Roy Hamey, the Yankees' troubleshooter, is out this way trying to put together a new scouting staff for the champs, who suffered a serious blow when their two famous talent hunters, Joe Devine and Bill Esick, died.

Between them, Devine and Esick were responsible for practically all the west coast stars such as DiMaggio, Gomez, Crosetti and many others who won fame with the Bombers over the past 20 years.

Commissioner Ford Frick passed through Denver on his way to the coast and he brought word that the two-game series between the Giants and Indians in the Colorado capital next week is going to be something, indeed. Given a break in weather—anything short of a foot of snow—he declares the big leaguers will play to two capacity crowds of 18,000 and pay for a lot of training camp steaks.

Some astute observers do not feel that the Chicago White Sox are displaying quite the fire and hustle they did in training games a year ago. From what he's seen of them, Roger Hornsby doesn't hesitate to say his St. Louis Browns will finish higher than Paul Richards' speed boys.

And speaking of speed, the Giants scoff out loud at a recently printed suggestion that the Sox are the fastest club in baseball. They declare that Bobby Thomson would beat either Minnie Minoza or Jim shortstop, but if they heave the team into the first division, it should go down in the books as a world shot-put record.

Busby by close to ten yards in the 100, and that several others of their number, including Al Dark, Willie Mays and Whitey Lockman, would at least hold their own with anything the Sox can offer.

WILLIAMS IS BEATEN BY TKO

Chicago, March 27 (AP)—After it was all over you would expect the winning fighter to say: "I murdered de guy."

Instead you heard Chuck Davey say: "I'm glad the referee stopped it because I would hate to have to see such a great former champion as Ike Williams knocked unconscious."

And then, in Williams' room where he was on rubbing table with his seconds dabbing cotton on his gashed cheek, his manager said: "Ike was lightweight champion for six years and was the best with class and punch . . . three years ago you should have seen him pulverize . . ." And so it went last night at Chicago stadium.

Blinky Palermo, Ike's manager whose license in Illinois has been suspended pending a probe of a police record, hovered over his has-been like a mother hen.

TKO In Fifth
"We didn't take Davey seriously enough," Blinky repeated. "Ike would like one more fight. As for a rematch with Jimmy Carter (who dethroned Williams for the lightweight crown 11 months ago) we won't hold him to a return bout now—it wouldn't be fair to the public. But a couple years ago Ike could have . . ."

Ike, on the dressing table, didn't say a word.
Davey, holder of a master's degree from Michigan state, had graduated to the ranks of a top welterweight contender.

He remained undefeated through 32 professional bouts by scoring a fifth round technical knockout over Williams in the televised scheduled 10 rounder in Chicago stadium last night. Each weighed 145 pounds.

COATESVILLE TO MEET FARRELL FOR PIAA TITLE

By BEN FRENCH
Harrisburg, March 27 (AP)—It will be a battle between two Pennsylvania steel town quintets when Farrell meets Coatesville Saturday night for the PIAA Class A basketball title.

But the championship game at the Palestra in Philadelphia will hardly be a climax for either team after last night's hectic regional finals.

Farrell won the Western title from the foul line at Pittsburgh in a 54-53 thriller over Pittsburgh Westinghouse. Farrell won a 55-54 decision from the Bulldogs in last year's regional finals.

Coatesville's Raiders had to beat back four Catasauqua drives before downing the Rough Riders, 61-53, at Hershey in the Eastern final that wasn't decided until the final minutes.

Farrell Coach Eddie McCluskey will take his two-time Western champions to Philadelphia tomorrow by plane, weather permitting. Walt Funk, 29-year-old coach of the surprising Raiders, said he'll keep his players home until shortly before the game.

Farrell Favored
Farrell is expected to be a slight favorite on the basis of its 28-1 record. Coatesville has won 23 against three losses and has a 14-game winning streak.

The Western Steelers had been favored over Westinghouse but it turned out that the game was decided on a foul shot. Both teams scored 21 field goals. Farrell led at the foul line, 12-11.

Farrell took 54 shots to Westinghouse's 67.

Julius McCoy, Farrell's 6 foot 1 All-State center, led the Steelers' scoring but was tied for high point honors by Westinghouse's Lem Nixon. McCoy spent seven minutes of the third period on the bench after he picked up three personal fouls in the first half.

Westinghouse, which had been beaten by 13-points when it met Farrell in December, stayed on the heels of the top-seeded Steelers throughout the game. Farrell led 19-14 at the end of the first period, 30-39 at half and 44-41 at the end of the third period.

The Coatesville-Catasauqua game was closer than the score indicates. Catasauqua, winner of the District 11 title, overcame an eight-point deficit to lead at the quarter, 16-14. Coatesville caught up to hold a 26-27 halftime margin.

Coatesville then ran up a five-point lead only to see it disappear on five successive foul shots. The Raiders led at the end of the third quarter, 42-39.

Raiders Finish Fast
Catasauqua kept plugging away and finally led 49-48 with four minutes to play. Then Coatesville took command and collected nine fast points to clinch the decision.

Both teams took 56 shots with Coatesville hitting on 25 to Catasauqua's 22.

Don Pryor, 6 foot forward, led the scoring for Coatesville with 18 points, seven in the final period.

Baseball Training Camp Briefs

Bradenton, Fla., March 27 (AP)—Righthander Clem Labine, counted on by the Brooklyn Dodgers to take up some of the slack caused by Don Newcombe's induction into the army, has a sore arm.

The youngster has a knot on the inside of the right elbow.

"I've had the swelling before," Labine said today, "but this is the first time I've had the pain to go with it."

Phoenix, Ariz., March 27 (AP)—Although disappointed with all sort of combinations he's been experimenting with, Manager Billy Meyer planned still more today as his Pittsburgh Pirates arrived to meet the New York Giants.

Meyer has been shaking up his lineup drastically in order to get some batting punch. He's had little success at the San Bernardino, Calif., training camp which broke up yesterday after the Bucs dropped a 4-2 decision to the St. Louis Browns.

West Palm Beach, Fla., March 27 (AP)—If you look close a little of the optimism of Philadelphia Athletics Manager Jimmy Dykes may be worn off today.

The gloss was taken off yesterday when the Baltimore Orioles, the Philadelphia Phillies International league farm club, walloped righthander Joe Coleman in the fourth inning.

Coleman has been bothered by a sore arm for several seasons but appeared to be making a comeback. Dykes had been counting on him as a starter. The Orioles beat the A's second squad, 5-3.

Clearwater, Fla., March 27 (AP)—The fate of the rookies trying to crash the Philadelphia Phillies varsity rests today in the hands of four men.

Manager Eddie Sawyer says he doesn't make the decision himself on whether the youngsters stay with the club or go back to the minors.

Instead, he explained, he sits with aides Benny Bengough, Cy Perkins, and Dusty Cooke. They talk about who would be missed the least. Then they write down the name of their top choice. If they all agree the "candidate" goes.

Tucson, Ariz., March 27 (AP)—Bob Feller has quit "taking it easy" in exhibition games. The results: impressive.

Until yesterday, Bob was following his early spring training schedule of pitching in relaxed style to limber up the arm. Then, against the Chicago White Sox, he bore down for the first time.

In four innings, with a crowd of 2,795 cheering him on, he shut out the Sox on three hits and struck out one.

Rookie Red Fahr was less effective. He let Chicago win an 8-5 decision in the ninth.

Phoenix, Ariz., March 27 (AP) —

READING LOOT UP TO $190,000

Reading, Pa., March 27 (AP)—The sum involved in the week-end burglary of the home of Mrs. Helen M. Bidden is believed over the $190,000 mark today as police conducted a 15-state search for a second suspect.

The first suspect, Paul Baer, 25, a bookkeeper and ex-convict, has identified his companion in the burglary as Edward Joseph Greely, 28-year-old Reading laborer, according to a confession announced by Det. Lt. Paul Slapikas.

Baer has been under arrest since Monday when $85,258 in cash was recovered at the leather store goods where he was employed. Yesterday he told police where an additional $9,980 was hidden at the store. Slapikas says Baer claims the two caches made up his one-half split of the money stolen from the Bidden home.

Two Warrants Issued
Baer and Greely are charged with burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods in warrants issued yesterday by Alderman C. Leroy Wanner.

The police message seeking Greely was aimed at states along the eastern coast and towards Cuba, Slapikas disclosed. He said authorities believe Greely may have left the country with his share of the loot.

Originally, Mrs. Bidden, the widow of a Reading factory owner, reported $125,000 in bills missing from her home. She discovered the loss when she returned Saturday with her son, Arthur, 36, after a business trip to New York. She said she "just hadn't gotten around" to banking the sum and described the money as the proceeds of a recent sale of securities and partly savings.

Chinese Habits Scored By WMCA President

Singapore (AP)—Singapore Chinese are too lavish in spending and are not punctual.

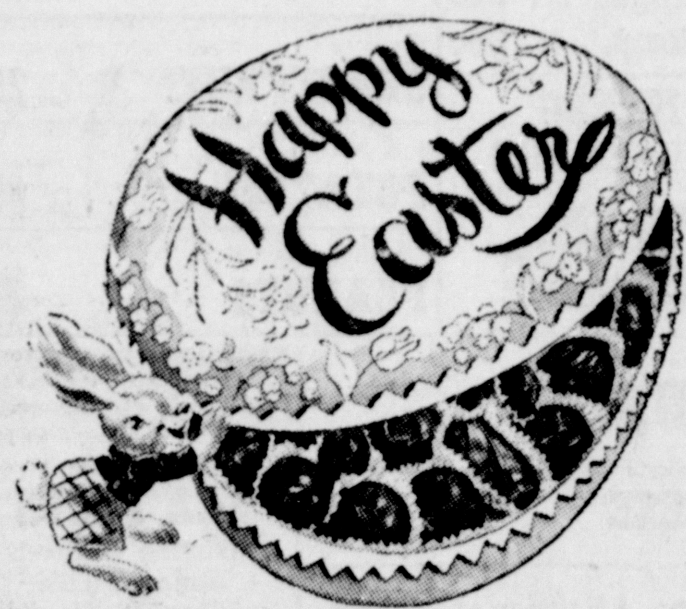

So thinks Mr. Homer Cheng, president of the Chinese YMCA. He has noticed Chinese extravagance in funerals, dinners and weddings. He said the Chinese YMCA has organized mass weddings at only $10 per couple. He believes Chinese restaurants could be persuaded to cut down the number of courses in Chinese dinners.

Weddings, funerals and dinners usually don't start on time because of the Chinese habit of being late.

Scranton, Pa., March 27 (AP)—The school district of nearby Olyphant has been sued for $10,000 damages by Dominick Martini, Jr., of Olyphant. The suit charges Martini suffered a broken nose in a high school football game because he was forced to use a defective helmet.

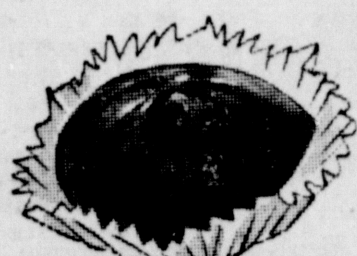

Trade rumors have been revived in the camp of the New York Giants with the arrival of Pittsburgh General Manager Branch Rickey.

Giants Manager Leo Durocher is looking for a left-handed pinch-hitter and part time outfielder. George Metkovich of the Pirates fills the bill. The Giants reportedly are willing to give up catcher Ray Noble, infielder Bob Hofman and pitcher Sheldon Jones or George Bamberger.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
SYMPATHY AND UNDERSTANDING

Two of the greatest cures for the sick heart that I know anything about are sympathy and understanding. Mere medicines have no place when this heart of ours ails!

That man in the Bible story—the good Samaritan—who noted a man in trouble by the wayside, had no idea as to who he was, but he knew he needed sympathy and understanding, and so put him on his own beast and had him cared for, while any number of others passed him by as being of no concern to them.

Fortunate is that doctor who has a good nurse for his patient—one who can dispense sympathy and understanding to the one under her charge, for in so many cases it is the mind and heart that are in greater need than the body.

It is easy enough for any of us to have sympathy for those who need it but understanding is not so easy. We understand so little about ourselves so that we cannot always be taken to task for not understanding someone else, not even those nearest and dearest to us. But just a little understanding goes so far! And does so much.

We have a glaring example of lack of sympathy and understanding in the world today, among the nations of the earth. Genuine sympathy and understanding would do away with all war, do away with all fear, and change the world! But perhaps that would be too simple a solution. It would kill all selfish power. But should this idea be put to work it would create a burst of happiness that would echo around the world as no A or H bomb possibly could!

Many of the refugees from foreign lands to this western world would have had their eyes opened as to how a democratic people live and work. Here they have found genuine freedom and sympathy and understanding that has amazed them. War is no solution—and never will be—for those who only ask for sympathy and understanding, and the opportunity to live their own lives as God meant that they should.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Glory In Little Things." Protected, 1952, by The George Matthew Adams Service

GARDEN MIRACLES

I marvel at the miracles a garden small discloses.
I plant a few dry stems of wood, and from them I'll get roses.
Some will be white and some be red. For that I trust the label.
But how that miracle is worked, to learn I'm never able.

I sow the seeds of marigold and zinnia from a packet.
But every flower has curious foes that every year attack it.
And this still stays a mystery: why flower and foe together?
Or how the zinnias come to bloom in spite of foe and weather?

I know in middle April right on schedule, to the minute,
The purple martins reach their house and start to settle in it.
I know they find their way back home, but how they do, I don't know.
And that is something I am sure that while I live I won't know.

I see the first brave snowdrop white, but never can explain it.
It brings its blossom through the soil without a spot to stain it.
In every thing that lives and breathes, in every leaf that's stirring
Who walks about a garden small sees miracles occurring.

ORDER OWNERS TO MAKE SEWER LINE HOOKUPS

A report on the number of properties remaining to be connected to the Littlestown sanitary sewer system was made at the March meeting of the borough council on Tuesday evening in the office of the borough secretary, Roger J. Keefe, North Queen street. It was learned that less than 40 properties have not been connected. After an extension of time had been previously allowed, due to the street and water line project, heating became a major problem with all the plumbers and there was a slow down on the sewer connections. Council agreed that official notices would be forwarded to all property owners not already connected to the sewer system and that those who fail to comply within the time limit would be prosecuted.

The meeting was in charge of the council president, Roscoe W. Rittase. The secretary's report was presented by Mr. Keefe and was approved. Nevaeh A. Crouse, a member of the firm of I. H. Crouse and Sons, discussed the proposed construction of a factory building for the Littlestown Manufacturing company along the Bonneauville road. The proposed building project concerned the borough council, inasmuch as rumors were circulated that the building would be erected on the corner of Prince street and the Bonneauville road. The council was also concerned as to the further development of Maple avenue by Mr. Crouse.

Permit Septic Tanks
Mr. Crouse said that the proposed building would be erected on the Bonneauville road adjacent to a proposed and altered continuation of Maple avenue, the land being sold subject to a 60-foot-wide street between the township line and the site to be used by the Littlestown Manufacturing company. The building will not front on any part of Prince street, he said. Sanitary sewerage was discussed and because there is no sewer line available for properties at this point, septic tanks will be permitted. The course to be followed along the proposed Maple avenue with a sewer line and the possibility of such a line being utilized by other properties later will be a factor in determining whether such extension should be made in order that the cost could be retired over a period of years in the same proportion of the other part of the sewer system.

Secretary Keefe was authorized to arrange with the engineering firm of Albright and Friel, Inc., and the Authority Board for a special joint meeting to discuss the matter. Council decided that James avenue from West King street to the existing curb on the avenue and Prince street from the Bonneauville road to Windsor street will be designated to obtain state aid funds.

Want Street Extended
A surface water condition on the property of William H. Dixon was blamed on the installation of a new storm sewer and abandoning of the old storm sewer in the alley adjacent to the properties of Clarence K. Sheely and Paul L. Study (former Theron W. Spangler property on North Queen street) and that drain tie emptying into the old sewer were not replaced into the new and surface water now has no way of draining off the Dixon property. It was decided to have Councilman Vernon C. Reaver investigate this condition and if the borough is at fault correct it.

President Rittase informed council that George A. Kress, Sr., had inquired whether a short street could be extended through his lot and the lot now owned by John H. Flickinger, north from East Myrtle street through the Flickinger and Kress lots to the property and proposed alley adjacent to and running along the Carroll Shoe company to Maple avenue. President Rittase instructed the Street committee to investigate and report at the next council meeting.

To Repair Streets
Charles R. Everhart, Jr., street commissioner, was instructed to repair Keystone street as soon as weather permits, and make repairs

S. Boyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Boyer, also of Butler township, were married Friday noon at the parsonage of the Bendersville Lutheran church by the Rev. O. D. Coble.

Governor and Butler Coming: Governor Gifford Pinchot and General Smedley D. Butler, the governor's candidate for the United States senate, will head a delegation of candidates for public office to Gettysburg next Friday morning, April 1, according to an announcement of Pinchot's supporters here.

Haines Speaks at P.T. Meeting: Congressman Harry L. Haines said in an address at a largely attended meeting of the Franklin township consolidated schools Parent-Teacher meeting at the school house, Friday evening, "In this two hundredth anniversary of Washington's birth, it is hoped that we will inculcate in the minds of the youth today those fine principles of morality, courage and patriotism for which George Washington stood."

to the first alley east of North Queen street.

The secretary was instructed to notify the gas company that if any excavations are planned on James avenue and Prince street they be done before construction of these streets begins. Council authorized the purchase of signs for erection at the theaters and also agreed to have all traffic signs throughout the traffic safety zones repainted.

Water permits were issued to the following: Wilbur S. Reindollar, service connection for 72 Patrick avenue; Edward F. Hawk, service connection for 79 Prince street; Kathryn M. Hahn, service connection for 59 West Myrtle street; Theron W. Spangler, service connection for 89 Patrick avenue.

Building permits were granted the following: I. H. Crouse and Sons, for one-story brick and stone, asbestos shingle roof dwelling and one-story cement block and brick asbestos roof garage for Theron W. Spangler at 89 Patrick avenue; I. H. Crouse and Sons for frame, metal or iron-clad grain storage elevator for the Keystone Milling company, Inc., rear of 115 South Queen street; I. H. Crouse and Sons for frame composition roof dwelling for Wilbur S. Reindollar at 72 Patrick avenue; Herbert S. Plunkert, 315 North Queen street, to remove three shade trees at 203-205 North Queen street; Carl T. Bemiller, Hanover, for brick-cased, asphalt shingle roof dwelling for Edward F. Hawk at 79 Prince street; I. H. Crouse and Sons, to replace sidewalk for Edward H. Brown, North Queen and West King streets.

Frock; Herbert J. Motter, burgess; John H. Flickinger, treasurer; Charles R. Everhart, Jr., street commissioner, and Roger J. Keefe, secretary. The next regular meeting of the council will be held Tuesday, April 22, at 8 p.m., in the secretary's office.

The arrival of spring initiated the second semester field trips of the Agriculture class. Professor D. G. Greco conducted the boys and girls of the class to the pasteurization plant of St. Joseph Central house. Here the students saw the equipment used in the pasteurization process.

With the fading of the basketball season, the Athletic Association of St. Joseph's turns to the spring sports. For the girls there are badminton, softball and ping pong, while the boys will play baseball and softball.

The Vigilant Hose company was called to extinguish a car fire on the square in Emmitsburg on Wednesday afternoon.

Key West, Fla., March 27 (AP)— President Truman, looking tanned, relaxed and healthy after a three-week vacation, flies back to Washington—and work—today. He takes off at 2:30 p.m. (EST) from the Boca Chica Naval Air station 8½ miles from the submarine station he makes his little White House. He is due in the capital around 6 p.m.

STORM SIGNALS UP IN CONGRESS OVER CONTROLS

Washington, March 27 (AP)—Storm signals were up in Congress today on the administration's request to extend and strengthen the network of price, wage, rent, credit and materials controls.

Angry comments about the proposed steel workers' pay boost, intended to avert a crippling strike, whipped up gales of opposition. Chairman Maybank (D-S. C.) is pushing the Senate Banking committee to get its extension bill on to the Senate floor.

But progress was suspended until next week after Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) officials entered a hurried protest on tentative Senate committee actions.

Blow To Administration
One was a vote to revise the Herlong amendment which last year assured retailers and wholesalers of historic profit percentages, or margins, on price ceilings fixed "hereafter."

President Truman and price control officials have been pushing for repeal of the Herlong amendment, saying it is inflationary. An attempt to kill it was beaten 10 to 3 in the Senate committee yesterday.

Then the group voted to strike out the "hereafter." OPS officials said that would reopen thousands of price ceilings fixed prior to last August when the Herlong amendment began to operate.

Failure to kill the Herlong amendment and broadening its application is regarded as a blow to the administration.

Rent Controls Stay
Rent controls in Chicago and other large cities survived by a 7-6 vote in the Senate committee.

Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) moved to limit the rent control extension to strictly critical defense areas. This failed by a single vote.

President Truman had asked a two-year extension of the entire controls program but the Senate group accepted, without a record vote, the one year extension proposed by Maybank.

Truman also had asked outright repeal of a section that now bans imports of foreign cheese, butter and dairy products. The committee did this but promptly substituted a world war imports ban which Maybank said was more liberal and should please the President.

Bel Air Meet To Open On May 21

Bel Air, Md., March 27—Following an absence of several seasons spring thoroughbred racing will return to Harford county, Md., this year when the Bel Air racetrack, Maryland's lone three-quarter mile oval, conducts its 10-day meeting from May 21 through May 31.

Joined onto the end of Maryland's major track season, which began at Laurel last Saturday, the Bel Air racetrack meeting is now less than two months away and track officials are well advanced with preparations for what promises to be a record-smashing meeting.

Glenn Davis Is Sued For Divorce

Los Angeles, March 27 (AP)—Actress Terry Moore has sued football's Glenn Davis for divorce, charging cruelty.

In an 18-word complaint filed yesterday, she said they separated three months after their marriage in Glendale, Calif., February 9, 1951. She said there is no community property and asked no alimony.

Davis, former West Point star, is now a halfback for the professional Los Angeles Rams.

Medical Costs For Relief Recipients Up

Harrisburg, March 27 (AP)—The Public Assistance department disclosed today medical costs to relief recipients have soared to an all-time high.

It's now costing Pennsylvania taxpayers more than five million dollars a year to provide medical aid to some 250,000 relief recipients. That's at a time when relief rolls are at comparatively low ebb in contrast to the depression years of pre-World War II.

Secretary Eleanor G. Evans cited as an example that it now costs four times as much to buy drugs for a relief recipient as it did in 1945.

Medical fees have jumped more than 100 per cent and dentists are getting 2½ times as much from families on public assistance rolls as they did seven years ago, Mrs. Evans told a newsman.

STATE MAKING SURVEY OF ITS PLANE SERVICE

Harrisburg, March 27 (AP) — The State Commerce Department reported today it is making an "up-to-the-minute" survey of commercial airline service in Pennsylvania.

William W. Behrens, deputy commerce secretary, said the survey will show where service is needed and what type is necessary in all parts of the state.

Behrens said the job is under direction of the aviation consultant firm of Kimball and Gill, Tarrytown, N. Y. He added their final report is expected some time during April.

To Handle Appeals

"They are basing their study on a report made in 1948 by Charles A. Rheinstrom, of New York," Behrens explained. "Rheinstrom had several suggestions to make concerning commercial air service in the state. Kimball and Gill are bringing the Rheinstrom report up-to-date." In addition to "making recommendations, the consultants will help the State Justice Department handle appeals from the various airlines and communities, Behrens said. Such appeals must be cleared with the Civil Aeronautics Authority in Washington before air service may be altered in any way.

Behrens said he did not know what the Tarrytown firm will have to say. "We hired them to make the survey," he said, "and we expect to have the answers in their report. That's all I know."

The Rheinstrom report listed 26 municipalities in the state that should have commercial air service. They were:

Allentown, Bethlehem and Easton (all one airport), Altoona, Erie, Harrisburg, Johnstown, Lancaster, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Reading, Scranton and Wilkes-Barre (one airport) and York.

Also Williamsport, New Castle, Hazleton, Pottsville, Butler, Oil City, Bradford, Conneville, Sunbury, Du Bois, State College and Stroudsburg.

All these, Rheinstrom said, should be on commercial air lines schedules. A supplementary list compiled by

'KING RACKETEER' MAKES U.S. OFFER ON TAX CLAIMS

Washington, March 27 (AP) — William G. Lias dangled a $1,476,114.78 "final offer" before government officials Wednesday and told them it was more than they could collect by suing him for income tax delinquencies.

Lias is the Wheeling, W. Va., man described by Sen. Williams (R-Dei.) in the Senate last fall as "a notorious racketeer" and the "dictator" of rackets in West Virginia and southern Ohio.

With a tax lien for $2,244,944 pending against him, he faces hearing in the U.S. tax court here April 7. His offer was made yesterday through his attorneys in a letter to Attorney General McGrath.

At the same time Attorney Thurman Hill disclosed that the attorney general had rejected a 14 million dollar settlement offer made on March 27.

Acquitted In Court

The newest offer was based on "the exact amount of the alleged tax deficiencies asserted against" Lias for the years 1942-47. The Automatic Cigarette Sales Corp. for 1944-45, and Zellers Steak House, Inc., for 1943-48. Lias is the principal owner of the firms, located at Wheeling.

Lias' attorney noted that he had been acquitted by a federal court jury in Fairmont, W. Va., in 1949 of wilful evasion of income taxes. For that reason, they said, the offer did not include penalties and interest which "should not be imposed."

Lias said his property is held in five receiverships because of the tax dispute. The costs of these, the losses which would be suffered at forced sales, and the costs of litigation would leave the government less even if it won the case than he is offering in settlement, Lias contended.

He mentioned specifically Wheeling Downs race track which he operates. The track is in receivership and a scheduled April 26 race meeting has been ordered cancelled.

Rheinstrom noted the communities which did not require scheduled service but might become entitled to it as they continued to grow. Among these were:

Lebanon, Pottstown, Meadville, Warren, Chambersburg, Beaver Falls, Coatesville, Indiana, Lewis-town, Lock Haven and West Chester.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh were the "only cities needing long-haul service to far-away places," Rheinstrom said. Communities nearby these two cities should not expect airports of their own but should be content with the ones at the cities, he added.

"This report needed revision," Behrens said, "so that's why we hired Kimball and Gill."

Iceland is one of the most volcanic regions of the world.

Spain Claims It Has Youngest Chess Player

Seville, Spain (AP) — Sevillians were always proud of their bullfighters but now they claim Spain's youngest chess player, too.

Andresito Garcia Quesada has not yet turned 5 and he can't read or write, but his chess playing is known throughout the country.

He's the son of a local barber who taught the boy to play chess six months ago. "In seven days he learned everything I know. Since then Andresito has consistently beaten me," the barber says.

Little black-eyed Andresito has defeated the top players of this city. The boy says he hopes to become world champion some day.

Senator McCarthy Sues Sen. Benton

Washington, March 27 (AP) — Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said Wednesday he has filed a two million dollar "libel, slander and conspiracy" suit against Sen. Benton (D-Conn.), who has demanded that McCarthy be ousted from the Senate.

McCarthy told reporters the suit was filed in federal district court here, and is based on Benton's charges last September that McCarthy had committed perjury, fraud and calculated deceit of the American people in pressing his Communists-in-government accusations.

Philadelphia, March 27 (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has an invitation to open his active campaign for the Republican presidential nomination with a speech at Independence Hall. The invitation was issued yesterday by Raymond Pitcairn, on behalf of a Bryn Athyn, Pa., group supporting the general's nomination.

STASSEN SEEKS TO GAIN VOTES ON IKE'S APPEAL

Milwaukee, March 27 (AP) — Competition among his opponents to get on the Eisenhower bandwagon seemed to leave Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio a claim today to a large segment of the GOP vote in next Tuesday's Wisconsin primary.

Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota, tried Tuesday night to hitch his campaign wagon to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's political star.

Stassen announced in a speech at Sheboygan that half of the 30 delegates running for him in this three-way contest—where Eisenhower's name is not entered—would vote for the general on the first ballot at the July Chicago convention, if they are elected.

He said further he would share equally with Eisenhower any smaller number of Wisconsin delegates he might win. But Stassen did not extend the offer to cover the 28 he won in Minnesota where the general ran him a close second on the strength of a write-in vote or he might get in Nebraska in the April 1 vote there.

Curious Maneuver

Stassen's curious maneuver putting him half in and half out of the presidential race brought prompt and vigorous reaction from the Taft forces and from supporters of Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Warren, due to resume campaigning in the state tonight, declined comment in California. He has said he will release without strings any delegates pledged to him if he finds he can't win the presidential nomination.

While Warren has avoided any commitment to Eisenhower, he obviously hoped to become the beneficiary of votes which he had been gone to the general if he had been entered in the race here. His slate of 30 delegates has voted unanimously to go to Eisenhower if they are released by Warren.

Ralph Immell of Madison, a member of Warren's slate, said in a statement that Stassen is offering Eisenhower "exactly one-half of nothing."

Chocolate Bunnies Made Before Xmas

New York (AP) — The Easter Parade really gets started before Christmas. That's when leading candy manufacturers start production lines for the millions of chocolate bunnies that youngsters will see the morning of April 13.

One local "hatchery" (Rockwood) is sending out more than 10,000,000 Easter pieces this year including eggs, standing rabbits holding eggs, sitting jack rabbits, hens on the nest, roosters and dolls. It's quite a trick to make them especially to make them hollow.

How is it done? You fill the mold half full and then for half an hour you rotate it while moving it through a refrigerated tunnel. The chocolate sticks to the chilled sides of the mold. At the end of the tunnel you open the mold and out pops your Easter bunny.

Most of the primates (so-called "highest" group of animals which includes man) live in trees.

WEST POWERS GROW TOUGHER ABOUT GERMANY

Washington, March 27 (AP) — The western powers gave evidence today of pushing ahead with plans to cement as much of Germany as possible to the western world regardless of Russia's tactics.

for dealing with German questions where Russia is concerned was spelled out in a note sent to Moscow on Tuesday and made public by the three nations Tuesday night.

This 600-word declaration, responding to a new Soviet proposal of March 10 to start work on a German peace treaty, did two things:

1. It served notice on the Kremlin that western nations, in close cooperation with the anti-Communist government of West Germany, are firmly committed to tying Germany in whole or in part to a "purely defensive European community."

Challenge To Reds

State Department officials who helped draft the note said this meant the European defense community being formed to enable West Germany to put military forces into Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's Western Defense Army.

2. It challenged the Russians to

Happy Is The Day When Backache Goes Away

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. prove the sincerity of their declared interest in unifying Germany by permitting a United Nations commission to go into the Soviet zone and find out what opportunity exists there for holding free elections.

The three powers thus made clear to the free people of Western Germany and other western countries their decision not to be diverted from the path of rearmament. Officials here predicted the new notes would be followed by a long series of exchanges such as has taken place regularly in the past five years. These exchanges over the years have consistently reflected a hardening of the antagonistic positions of the Communist and free nations.

The Old Way Was So Nice

Today too many people mistake speed for progress. Maybe we don't want to go back to the old cracker-barrel days, but do we have to be cold and curt just because we have neon lights and electricity all over the place? Can't a store be warm and friendly and helpful and up-to-date too? We say emphatically—YES. And we are proving it every day to thousands of women who still like a smile with their steaks and some attention when they shop. Visit Community Stores and see for yourself how pleasant it is.

Rochester Mayor Has "Squawk Day"

Rochester, Ind. (P)—Every Monday, Mayor Robert W. Shafer hangs the city's civic linen on the line and invites the citizens in. What's wash-day to housewives is Squawk Day to Mayor Shafer.

"People really don't complain," he said. "They come in here to make something known that should have been done in the past or should be done in the future."

One citizen suggested that community land near the city dump be explored for gravel, then the test diggings be used as holes to bury garbage. The mayor follows up such ideas and his all-Republican administration carries through.

TOURISTS LIKE N. Y. TV

New York (P)—Room service revenue in one New York hotel doing mostly tourist business has hit an all-time high and television is given as the reason. "People from small towns are so impressed with the fine reception and programs which they can get on television sets in New York that they spend many hours in their hotel rooms watching TV and ordering their food and beverages in," said Irwin Kramer, Hotel Edison head.

Harrisburg, March 27 (P)—The Health Department set up a special unit Wednesday to promote prevention and treatment of heart and blood vessel diseases. Dr. Mildred C. J. The division's activities will be aimed at helping adults afflicted with heart disease.

Jersey City, N. J., March 27 (P)—Frank Hague, onetime New Jersey Democratic leader who announced three years ago he was quitting politics, served notice today he isn't in political retirement after all.

Hague, who dominated the party in the state for nearly 30 years, issued a statement that he intends to fulfill his duties as a member of the Democratic national committee and support the renomination of President Truman.

WRITER CLAIMS STEEL DISPUTE IS HUGE "MESS"

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, March 27 (AP)—A certain amount of sweetness, but no light, has suddenly invaded the steel dispute which is a gorgeous mess. And even the sweetness is probably only a fleeting illusion.

This dispute remains a powder keg which could explode in a strike or the wreckage of wage-price controls unless there is a public explanation, or solution, by President Truman, Defense Mobilizer Wilson, or some other source.

The sudden squirt of sweetness came from Wilson, who first torpedoed his own Wage Stabilization Board (WSB) and threw out the lifelines, and from Nathan P. Feinsinger, board chairman, who alone seems to be seeing a silver lining.

Public Puzzled

Meanwhile, the public, with a vital stake in the outcome, is left cooling its heels, puzzled and waiting for a sensible explanation.

The dispute began with the CIO Steelworkers' demand for a wage increase which the industry said it couldn't grant unless the government, controlling wages and prices, permitted a price increase.

So, because of the government's control program, there were two basic questions from the start:

1. Were the steelworkers entitled to a wage increase at all and, if so, how much?

There was no doubt that if the government approved a wage boost for the steelworkers, out of line with its policy on wage limits, other unions would flock in, demanding higher wages too.

WSB Studies Problem

The President persuaded the union and the industry, which couldn't agree, to let WSB examine the wage claims to make a recommendation.

2. If the workers were entitled to an increase, could the industry afford to grant it without raising prices?

There was no doubt that if steel prices were permitted to rise sharply, the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) would have to grant increases to other industries dependent on steel, a basic industry.

But OPS officials said steel could afford, out of its large profits, to grant wage increases without raising prices. It was up to WSB to decide what wage increase, if any, the steelworkers should get.

Last Thursday Feinsinger's 18-man WSB recommended a sizeable wage boost for the steelworkers. Would that increase, if the steel industry granted it, upset the government's efforts to stabilize wages in general?

Feinsinger said the board's recommendations were "in all respects fair and equitable and not unbalancing."

Defense Mobilizer Wilson thought otherwise. He flew to Key West to consult Truman and on his return Monday night told reporters: "There is no question in my mind but that, if the wage increases contemplated under the WSB's recommendations are put into effect it would be a serious threat in our year-old effort to stabilize the economy."

Feinsinger Upset

This must have upset Feinsinger who by this time was out in Colorado. He decided to fly back. Before he got here Wilson poured soothing syrup on his previous crack about the board.

Feinsinger arrived and told reporters "things were back on the track."

Meanwhile the board as a whole was being given the miseries. Sen. Maybank, South Carolina Democrat, put in his say: If the board recommendations went into effect, there'd be no sense in having a controls law.

The House rules committee voted to investigate the board. And some of the board members representing industry—the others represent labor and the public—said the board should fold up.

The union and the industry started negotiating all over again Wednesday.

U. S. MIGHT LOSE BEST LAWYERS

Washington, March 27 (AP)—Attorney General J. Howard McGrath told congressional investigators Wednesday the Justice Department would lose overnight "a majority of its best attorneys" if they were barred from outside activities.

McGrath testified at the first open hearing of a House Judiciary subcommittee that is looking into his department's operations.

He chose to testify under oath, although the committee had decided he need not swear to tell the truth.

"Under the circumstances there are people who would wonder why the attorney general should not be sworn," he remarked.

The subcommittee inquiry was aimed, among other things, at unearthing the truth of charges that the department had not pressed some tax fraud prosecutions as it should.

Chairman Chelf (D-Ky.) said in an opening statement: "Our investigation will be searching and painstaking—lacking the carnival ballyhoo which many would like to witness. This is no witch hunt or fishing expedition."

Chelf also promised "to exercise every available safeguard against bringing into public investigation the name of persons, companies, or associations who are not guilty of wrongdoing."

MISTAKEN FOR TAXI

Oklahoma City (AP)—Officer Bill Krueger wishes the Police Department would change the signs on his official car. Painted above the department emblem on both sides is the word, "Taxicab." The bottom word of his title—"Inspector"—is simply ignored. "Every time I park downtown, I have to lock the doors to keep people from jumping into my car and ordering me to take them someplace," he laments.

Mailman Bitten 12 Times In 12 Months

Lakewood, Calif. (AP)—That old saying about neither snow, nor rain, nor heat, nor gloom of night staying the postman ought to have something in it about dogs, says Mervin Haworth.

Haworth, a letter carrier, has been bitten 12 times in 12 months while making his rounds.

The worst dog Haworth says, ran up to me barking and its owner said, "Don't pay any attention, he doesn't bite." About that time the mutt took two chunks of meat off the back of my leg, the mailman said.

Hay Is Found Good After Thirty Years

Sydney, Australia (AP)—Thirty-year-old hay was used to feed Jersey cows at a Brisbane dairy farm during a recent drought.

Queensland Agriculture Department officers said an analysis of a sample from the center of the 12-ton stack showed it still had an excellent protein content of 21.7 per cent, moisture free.

The stack was put down by the present owner's father following a drought in 1919. Secret of the long preservation of the stack, said the owner, is that the lucerne was well-dried, and the stack had been kept under cover.

Clarence H. Adams Nominated For SEC

Washington, March 27 (AP)—Clarence H. Adams of Connecticut was nominated by President Truman Wednesday to be a member of the Securities and Exchange commission.

Adams was named to succeed Harry McDonald for the remainder of the term expiring June 5, 1956. McDonald left the SEC to become administrator of the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

Bernard Greidinger of New York was nominated to be a member of the renegotiation board which handles adjustment of government contracts.

Yeadon, Pa., March 27 (AP)—Backers of Gen. Douglas MacArthur for the Republican presidential nomination announced they will conduct a statewide write-in campaign for the general. State Chairman John G. Davis, Yeadon, said each of Pennsylvania's 67 counties will be reached in a drive to give MacArthur a substantial write-in vote. Davis' group, known as the "Fighters for MacArthur," lost a court fight to keep MacArthur's name on the ballot after the general himself withdrew his name.

2 OF 3 G. O. P. DELEGATES ARE FOR EISENHOWER

Sunbury, Pa., March 27 (AP)—Two of three candidates for delegate to the Republican national convention from the Schuylkill-Northumberland district said Tuesday they favored Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the GOP presidential nomination.

Henry W. Lark, Northumberland county chairman, and James A. Dyke, Mt. Carmel funeral director, said flatly they would vote for Eisenhower at the Chicago convention, if elected as delegates.

The third candidate, G. Harold Watkins, Schuylkill county leader, said he would be "influenced strongly" in his stand at Chicago, if there is a big turnout for Eisenhower at the April 22 preference primary. Two delegates will be elected from the district.

2 Leaders Back Ike

The Eisenhower situation in Northumberland county came to the front Tuesday when both Lark and John U. Shroyer, leaders of rival Republican factions in the county, endorsed Eisenhower. Lark's statement followed similar action by the Republican executive committee.

Lark and Watkins are organization candidates for delegate in the 12th District, comprising the two counties. Dyke is running as an independent with Shroyer's backing. Shroyer now is Northumberland county commissioner. He is a former state secretary of highways.

Lark told a newsman: "I'll vote for Eisenhower at the convention, certainly. It is the will of the people."

Dyke said he came out for Eisenhower as "the strongest presidential candidate," adding:

"Under any circumstances, I will vote for Eisenhower at the convention, if I am elected."

Watkins, secretary of the state Senate, said the Schuylkill county organization will take a "hands-off" stand in the presidential preference primary, explaining:

"I'd like to see how popular Eisenhower is without political pressure. I am expecting, however, that he's going to be very popular."

Asked his viewpoint on the candidacies of Sen. Robert A. Taft, Ohio, and Harold E. Stassen, president-on-leave of the University of Pennsylvania, Watkins said he waited to await the results of the primary before making a statement.

Only the names of Eisenhower and Stassen are on the Republican ballot for the presidential preference vote at the April 22 primary.

PASTOR'S WARM WELCOME
Belvidere, Ill. (AP)—Rev. S. L. Buchanan, new pastor of the First Baptist church, figures a fire in the church is too much of a warm welcome. A serious fire was averted by a passerby who noticed smoke coming from the building. Firemen put out the blaze that started in the coal bin. The Rev. Buchanan was installed as pastor the following Sunday.

INDUSTRIAL SITE PLANNED
Singapore (AP)—Industrialists from Australia and Hong Kong are moving into Singapore to set up factories in cooperation with local businessmen. Initially, separate syndicates plan the establishment of a textile mill, a boot-polish factory and an edible-oil refinery. The factories will be built on a 53-acre plot of ground especially for industrial development. The site has space for 20 factories with staff quarters.

It is believed that official government propaganda was not attempted before World War I by any nation except Germany.

EXPECT EARLY SIGNING OF 6 NATION TREATY

Paris, March 27 (AP)—Gen. Eisenhower stands a good chance of seeing the six-nation European army treaty signed and ready for ratification before the Maytime departure he is generally expected to take from his job as supreme Allied commander.

Experts predicted today the voluminous treaty creating the international force will be complete by mid-April. Shortly after, the foreign and defense ministers of France, West Germany, Italy, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg are expected to sign it.

That would just about complete the top priorities of Eisenhower's second "Crusade in Europe." Most of the general's associates believe he will go home in the last two weeks of May to the political role awaiting him as a candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

These associates speculate Eisenhower may send his request next week to President Truman for relief from his mission as top Atlantic Pact military commander. The President already has said the general can come home whenever he wants.

Considered Good Plan

Eisenhower always has regarded the idea of a European army, with national forces controlled by a central international command, as the best plan for getting Germans back into uniform to help defend their own soil against the threat of Communist aggression.

Eisenhower's interest in the European army is so keen that he had assigned two of his officers to help iron out the technical difficulties still standing in the way of agreement.

Assigned to this ticklish job are Brig. Gen. John H. "Mike" Michaelis, Korea war hero from Lancaster, Pa., and Col. Robert Richardson. They have been meeting with experts of the European nations for some months.

This group has solved, to their satisfaction anyway, all major problems of merging the military power of the six nations into an international land-sea-air force of some two million men and six thousand planes within the next three years. What remains are such administrative problems as uniform disciplinary regulations, a common uniform and pay scales.

Former Jap Red Warns Of Threat

Tokyo (AP)—One of Japan's first Communist leaders is warning that Japan is Soviet Russia's primary target for aggression in the Orient. Gekko Sano, who broke with the party 20 years ago, said in the Japan Weekly that Russian designs are being concentrated in the Orient because of the growing strength of Western Europe.

"Peace offensives and local rebellions tinged with nationalism are still effective weapons in Asia," Sano wrote. "So far, only China has fallen to the Soviets. To put all of Asia under domination, the Communists must also have Japan and India."

HEAVY TAXES CUTTING SALES BY RETAILERS

Washington, March 27 (AP)—Federal taxes hit the American buyer so hard last week, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce reported today, that "retailers in almost every line of business are reporting sharply dropping sales."

Never has there been such a drain on the American economy, the chamber added.

Dr. George Cline Smith, director of the chamber's government economy program, said that during five days—March 17-21—the Treasury took in nearly $5,300,000,000 dollars.

That was "more than all the taxes collected during the entire year of 1940," he added.

Smith said service trades, amusements and hotels were complaining of a sharp drop in business and "these immediate effects can be expected to reflect themselves in manufacturing and other industries as well."

"The situation will probably improve somewhat before long," his

A foot for a patient

It has been said that he who treats his own illness has a fool for a patient. The wisdom is obvious. What may seem to be an insignificant ailment actually may be a warning of serious illness, especially if symptoms persist or recur. Only a physician has the ability and knowledge required to diagnose and prescribe medical treatment. Seek his attention at the first warning signal. A prolonged and serious illness may be thwarted. If medication is needed, bring your prescription to us.

QUICK SERVICE
HOSPITAL PLAN
SERVING NEEDS

Atlantic City, N. J., March 27 (AP)—A kind of drive-in "hospital equivalent"—where you're in and out the same day, even for child-birth—can meet virtually all the hospitalization needs of a rural community, a country doctor said today.

Dr. D. G. Miller, Jr., of Morgantown, Ky., said he converted two small country stores into such a set-up and was able to meet the requirements of all but about three per cent of his patients.

One of only two physicians in a "low-income" Kentucky county of approximately 12,000 population, Dr. Miller said he, two nurses, a laboratory technician and a receptionist handled 10,672 "office" calls for everything except major surgery.

In addition, he himself made 566 visits to homes, riding in a jeep for round-trip distances of as much as 50 miles.

The office and home visits, he told the American Academy of General Practice, represented 2,389 individual patients.

And he said that such an arrangement could allow a single rural physician anywhere—with a few capable assistants and proper, though sometimes improvised, equipment—to meet all but a few of the needs of a community of several thousand people.

He said such arrangements could take the place of actual hospitals built for rural communities with partial federal aid under the Hill-Burton hospital construction act.

"We maintain," he said, "that low income rural counties are building too many Hill-Burton hospitals. These communities can ill afford the maintenance of such high-cost hospitals as x's."

A doctor's office "hospital equivalent," he said, can be equipped for about $25,000—provided the doctor uses such things as a $25 onetime dental chair as an eye-car nose-and-throat examining chair, and various arm surplus supplies.

There are no board and room charges at Dr. Miller's "hospital equivalent." If a patient stays long enough for measles, their relatives go out and buy them.

The American Academy of General Practice, which is holding its annual meeting as an organization of some 15,000 "family doctors."

"Displaced" Horse
Is Used For Breeding

Butte, Mont. (AP)—On a ranch near this mining city is a displaced horse, bred by the Nazis from stolen stock, is lending his aristocratic blood lines to the improvement of the American horses.

"Humphrey," the horse's new name, weighs 1,140 pounds. He was foaled in Germany by a Hungarian mare in 1943. His parents were stolen by the Nazis when Hungary—long the world capital for cavalry horses—was overrun.

"Humphrey" was captured by Americans in 1945 and classed as "spoils of war." The army remount service imported 143 of these displaced horses and farmed them out for breeding purposes.

His new owner says "Humphrey" in the seat of a pedicab, suffered only slight injuries and was ordered to sign a bond to be of good behavior for six months.

Long Beach, Calif. (AP)—Tico-Tico, a midget Mexican parrot, once flew with many of his kind in destructive raids on Mexico's grain fields.

Now the pet of young Clinton and Marston Smith, Tico-Tico's foraging habits haven't improved. The pint-sized bird now competes with the boys for their meals.

Their mother, Mrs. J. Stanley Smith, reports milk and cereal is the bird's favorite dish. Tico-Tico sometimes stands on a syrupy pancake and pecks away at it.

Urge Young People
To Enter Politics

Bonn, Germany (AP)—The high mortality rate in the West German parliament has brought an urgent appeal for young people to get into politics.

And, in fact, twenty-two members of the 402-member Bundestag have died since it was constituted in 1949. Only three of these have been accidental deaths.

Alarmed by this and by the advanced age of many legislators, a 35-year-old deputy recently broadcast a radio plea for youth to get into politics "for the good of Germany and the European idea."

NAVY STARTS TRAINING FOR ROBOT WEAPON USE IN COMBAT

Washington, March 27 (AP) — The navy has started training crews for its robot weapons warships, the first two of which will be ready about 1954.

This came out today in a list of routine orders transferring officers. One of them was assigned to "Naval Guided Missile Training Unit No. 21."

The navy, both in its own research program and in collaboration with the other armed forces, has for several years been training a relatively small number of technicians for development work.

But to be ready with the thousands of officers and enlisted men needed when the new weapons begin reaching the fleet for operational use, it is opening guided missile training schools.

While officials did not specify where Unit No. 21 is located, a large part of the navy's missile program is centered at Point Mugu, Calif., the overwater testing area. However, the navy also carries on extensive operations afloat, including missile launchings from the former sea-plane tender Norton Sound, now a laboratory ship, and from a submarine.

The navy disclosed last year that a factory for production of guided missiles in volume was being built in California.

The overall objective is to have weapons, ships and crews ready at about the same time.

In January the navy announced that two heavy cruisers, the Boston and Canberra, both 13,600-tonners, had been selected for conversion into guided missile vessels, "available for duty as ships of the line."

General Expectation

The two ships, towed from Puget Sound, Ore., through the Panama canal, have arrived at the yards of the New York Shipbuilding corporation, Camden, N. J., preparatory to a start on their remodeling, a navy spokesman said today.

The general expectation is that the first production line missiles will be tactical weapons, for antiaircraft (surface-to-air) and possibly for defense against attacks by other ships (surface-to-surface).

Presumably the contract which the navy made about a year ago with the Consolidated Vultee Aircraft corporation for operating the plant at Pomona, Calif., was for production of this type of missile.

Construction of the factory started in June, and was scheduled to be completed early this year.

To Equip Squadrons

An indication that the navy expects production deliveries of missiles to reach a substantial rate during the next few months was contained in the annual military budget sent to Congress in January.

A notation in the budget, which provides funds for the year beginning July 1, said that an estimate contained in the requested appropriation "provides for the first time missiles for fleet training and service use." The notation commented also that during the year beginning July 1 it is planned to equip "a number" of combat air squadrons and service units with testing and handling equipment "to make possible the employment of guided missiles as service weapons."

Still Of Gold Rush Days Is Confiscated

Pasadena, Calif. (AP)—A swap-shop owner recently displayed an interesting antique which had hard use during California's gold rush days.

The antique was a whiskey still and it was the center of interest at the shop—for a while.

Then it was confiscated by Clair E. Kirk of the Board of Equalization liquor control division, who remarked: A still's still a still.

Baby's Name Takes German Official OK

Frankfurt, Germany (AP)—Having a baby in Germany is easy on the father until it comes time to pick out a name.

A proud parent can't just select any name he wants. Officialdom has its own rigid ideas. If you don't register your child there less than a week after birth, it doesn't exist—legally. When you make out your income tax declaration, you're still "married without children."

They say a child should have a name well recognized in Germany and fit for christening. They have a little book containing all the names which the state allows.

When water freezes it gets more bulky, reversing the usual rule that matter expands on being heated and contracts when cooled.

12 Airmen Killed In Two Crashes

Tucson, Ariz., March 27 (AP)—Twelve military airmen were killed in two plane crashes in the southwest yesterday. Eight died in the flaming wreckage of a B-29 bomber from Davis-Monthan Air Force base here and four perished in the crash of a B-47 stratojet bomber from Kirtland AFB on the edge of Albuquerque, N. M.

Both crashes occurred shortly after the planes had taken off from their bases.

The B-29, with one engine dead, was trying to return to its base when it crashed, exploded and burned in the desert five miles from the base.

Names of the dead in this crash were to be released sometime today. Maj. Maston Jacks, base public information officer, said.

Gold often is found in rocks so old that they contain no fossils or very few fossils, indicating they were formed before life existed on earth or during the very early development of life.

TELLER ADMITS EMBEZZLEMENT

Scranton, Pa., March 27 (P)—Frank Donald Hofsommer, head teller at the Green Ridge bank here, has confessed that he embezzled $15,000 of bank funds which disappeared in July, 1950. Assistant U. S. Attorney Joseph P. Brennan has announced.

Brennan made the announcement as a grand jury was investigating the bank case and federal authorities immediately arrested Hofsommer and took him before U. S. Commissioner Harry Kolb for arraignment.

The $15,000 theft was not reported until a week after the money disappeared July 7, 1950. A bank messenger, Harry L. Nash, left the bank with a satchel supposedly containing $25,000 for another bank here. When the satchel was opened at the other bank there was only $10,000 in it. The Federal Bureau of Investigation then entered the case but it was not until this week that the grand jury began a probe of the case.

Hofsommer and his brother, Carl, another Green Ridge bank employee, had charge of putting money in the satchel for the bank messenger, it was disclosed. Donald Hofsommer was twice before the grand jury this week.

Says Red Maneuvers Won't Deflect U. S.

Washington, March, 27 (P)—The United States "will not be deflected" by Russian maneuvering in its drive to unify Europe, Secretary of State Acheson said today. He told a news conference Russia's own European policy emphasizes "the need for a rapid development of a close European community."

In that community, he said, "Germany must be allowed to play its part."

Acheson questioned Russia's sincerity in proposing that the Big Four move for a peace treaty that would unify east and west Germany.

The State Department, Acheson said, believes the Soviet proposal was aimed at blocking—if possible—the integration of western Germany into the political and military organization of western Europe.

WHITE SIDEWALL TIRES OK AGAIN

Washington, March, 27 (P)—The government has lifted its ban on white sidewall tires and increased the amount of natural rubber that may be used in passenger car tires. The National Production Authority also announced that tire and rubber companies may use 110,000 long tons of natural rubber in each quarter after April 1, instead of 105,000 tons.

The announcement was coupled with a promise of further easing of rubber controls "in the near future."

HANDWRITTEN BIBLE

Calgary, Alta. (P)—A handwritten Bible of 1,200 pages has been completed by members and friends of the Pentecostal Tabernacle here under the direction of Pastor John M. Watts. Parishioners spent 1,800-man hours on the 100-pound volume, including a chapter in Braille.

French House To Open At Goucher

Baltimore (P)—A residence hall in which the students will be allowed to speak only French is planned for Goucher College. To be known as "French House," it will open this fall.

Students at the Maryland college will thus achieve greater facility in speaking and understanding the language, said Dr. Lester Gilbert Crocker, professor of Romance languages.

The principal rule for admission to the group will be the determination to stick to French at all times.

Participation, entirely voluntary, will be limited in the beginning to approximately a dozen students. No academic credit will be given.

RABBIT SKIN PRICES DROP
Sydney, Australia (P)—The price for rabbit skins here is the lowest since the depression of the early 1930's.

"Actually prices today are worse than depression prices because of high costs," one dealer said. "When you see so many men going without hats, that's part of the answer. Hat makers have been among our biggest buyers." Demand from the United States, once a big buyer, has also dropped.

"Vessel-Of-Death" Found With Corpses

Jakarta, Indonesia (P)—Reports from the remote island of Flores tell of the discovery of a "mysterious vessel-of-death."

Local authorities recently set out by motor-launch to investigate stories about a boat which cruised aimlessly along the east coast of Flores.

After a search of several hours they found the boat. It contained six corpses, a Singer sewing machine and a bicycle. The dead could not be identified, and the discovery is still a mystery to the police.
